PENSION PROBLEMS. How to Solve Them.

BY AN EXPERT. A Foot-Note to the Strike and a Plea for Consistency—The Lower Deck Grievances—The Royal Commission on Pensions—The Position of the Stomach—Free Advice to Our Readers.

When I call to mind the fact that there was a large number of dismissed men among railway workers, I feel sure that they could not have been dismissed without some cause.

There is one common consideration that of us have to bear in mind. The situation of our country is such that the Government has to take into account the interests of all classes of the community.

As a nation, we have to be consistent in all our actions. We must not allow ourselves to be divided by sectional interests.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the needs of all classes of the community. It is the duty of the workers to be satisfied with their lot.

From all I have heard of the Navy we have never heard of a man being dismissed without some cause.

While I am on the subject of the Navy, I would like to mention the fact that the Royal Commission on Pensions has been set up.

As there may be Canadian, or friends of the cause, who are interested in the subject, I would like to mention the fact that the Royal Commission on Pensions has been set up.
